

EXCERPT FROM LBE MANUAL #7

√ If you have only understood the use of the Kingdom Key of binding as being for the act of binding Satan, you need to re-examine your understanding. There are no references in the Bible about Jesus or any of His disciples ever binding Satan or evil spirits. Jesus either rebuked, silenced, or told evil spirits to leave when one was foolish enough to get in His way.

1. Satan has more spirits to send at you than you could possibly ever have time to bind during the rest of your life. Binding evil spirits is like trying to mop up an overflowing toilet without ever shutting off the water coming into it. It is much more productive to turn the water off before you try to deal with the flood on the floor. It is also much more productive to shut the open doors in your soul that evil spirits use for drive-by shootings to harass and bully you. Explain what this means to you:
